

Search:

 Search

\(clear\)

- Flocculation A process in which the suspended particles of a destabilized colloid or suspension form groups or clumps (known as a “floc”). Coagulation and flocculation work together to separate solids and liquids containing colloids and suspensions.
- Fluorotelomer substance A polyfluoroalkyl substance produced by the telomerization process.